Americus Garden Inn Bed & Breakfast award recipient

Published 3:00 pm Monday, February 8, 2016

AMERICUS — The 2016 TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice Award winners have been announced, and, for the eighth time, Americus Garden Inn Bed and Breakfast has been recognized as a Top 20 B&B in the United States. For the 14th year, TripAdvisor has highlighted the world's top properties based on the millions of reviews and opinions collected in a single year from travelers around the globe. The hallmarks of Travelers' Choice winners are remarkable service, quality and value.

In their 14th year as innkeepers, Kim and Susan Egelseer have been entertaining guests from around the globe in their 1847 Southern home. "Kim and Susan were wonderful hosts," reports JC from Tallahassee. "Wonderful place to stay," says Lorraine from Virginia. "Delightful and delicious," are the words Priscilla from Athens uses to describe her experience.

With a comfortable blend of historic and contemporary furnishings, the Americus Garden Inn Bed and Breakfast is the perfect place for a quiet getaway or a romantic retreat. For history buffs, the Andersonville National Historic Site, the National P.●W. Museum and the Jimmy Carter National Historic Site are about a 15-minute drive from Americus. How about an opportunity to attend a Sunday school class taught by a former president, President Jimmy Carter? There are numerous historical venues, museums, inexpensive golf and state parks within an hour's drive. Most people, who come for history, fall in love with the small town charm of Americus. Or, as the Americus Garden Inn Bed & Breakfast describes it, "where history meets romance ..." "We congratulate the properties that have won Travelers' Choice Hotel awards," said Barbara Messing, chief marketing officer for TripAdvisor. "As travelers consider where to book their next trip, they should be sure to check out these award-winners that have already delighted millions of members of the TripAdvisor community."
